Paris, Feb. 24.—The War Office announces that the French line has not been broken at any point.

London, Feb. 4.—The great battle on the western front, where more than 250,000 Germans are assaulting the French lines, along a 25-mile front to the north of the fortress of Verdun, is the outstanding feature in the current war news.

To take the fortress of Verdun is one of the chief ambitions with which the German Crown Prince has been credited. The present effort under his command is on a scale that indicates the most determined effort yet of his armies to break down the barriers with which the French have protected their stronghold and get within striking distance of the fortress itself.

At last accounts the battle was still raging with great fury, both sides keeping up a continuous fire from all available artillery, and throwing masses of troops into the fray. Losses on each side have been extremely heavy.

In the fighting during the second day of the great battle the Germans pushed their way to points two miles inside the former French lines, penetrating as far as the village of Haumont, less than eight miles from the fortress. The French claim to have held the approaches to the south of that village, however, checking the German advance there, as they did in the woods of Camrue. East of the latter point, however, the German advance continued, with force, and the French were obliged to retreat to the second line. Elsewhere the German advance was checked to within four miles of the fortress.

Lisbon, Feb. 23, via Paris, Feb. 24.—Captain Leofte Rogo, the commander of the naval division here, at 4 o'clock this afternoon, apparently of his own initiative, took forcible possession of thirty-six German and Austrian vessels lying in the Tagus River, hoisted the Portuguese colors on them, and saluted them with a twenty-one gun salute from the Portuguese fleet.

It is said that the act of Captain Rogo in seizing the interned vessels was not executed by any intervening authorities who were unaware of the men until it was carried out.

"You must not misunderstand," she said, with not a trace of coyness, but with gentle insistence.

"I mean that the woman—woman she is a girl, poor darling—when I have disappeared suddenly and mysteriously, without leaving any sign or clue behind me, leaving no sign or clue to comfort me, without even a bare reason for my disappearance, it is not that enough to make me unhappy?" she said, smiling, and she looked at him for a moment in astonishment, then she said, "You are not a man, are you?"

"I am not a man," he said, smiling, "I am a woman."

"What?" she asked, looking at him with a gleam of surprise.

"Yes, yes, while, and one closed over it, and held it."

"Tell me," she said, "you say that she is very beautiful? What makes you say the least and the strongest of us, take a delight in knowing her?"

"I have almost forgotten what she was like. She is very beautiful."

"Very? I think she is the loveliest creature I have ever seen," he answered, smiling, thoughtfully, blushing.

"She would drop."

"When you have found her—and you will find her—she is very beautiful. You must let me know, and we will be glad to be great friends, as we used to be."

"Yes," she said, smiling, "I should like that, and she would be delighted if you found her. You must let me know, and we will be glad to be great friends, as we used to be."

Legislature Authorizes Municipalities to Contribute

For Their Bilingual Fight in This Province.

Quebec, Feb. 23.—Arguing that it was unconstitutional and that the effect of it would be to deprive the interests of the French-Canadian minority in Ontario, Mr. Philmon Coussens, leader of the Opposition, this afternoon fought against the Government bill authorizing municipalities to contribute "up to 5 per cent. of gross revenue to funds opened by corporations or persons for public subscription for patriotic, national or school purposes within the province or elsewhere."

Mr. Coussens, Liberal member for Beloeil and Deputy Speaker of the Assembly, also introduced an amendment to the bill to prohibit municipalities from contributing to such funds. He said that the bill was a "trap" for the French-Canadian minority in Ontario, and that it was a "violation of the rights of the French-Canadian minority in Ontario."

Mr. Coussens was supported by Mr. P. D'Auteuil, Conservative member for Charlevoix-Saguenay, and Mr. J. B. Gauthier, Liberal member for Beauharnois. The vote was 41 to 21.

While the bill providing for nationalistic purposes was being debated, the House became one of education. Mr. Coussens declared himself in opposition to the bill. He said that the bill was a "violation of the rights of the French-Canadian minority in Ontario."

He thought that this speech did not aid the cause of the French-Canadian minority in Ontario. He said that the bill was a "violation of the rights of the French-Canadian minority in Ontario."

Builders' Exchange Demand Canadian Plans.

The Provincial Builders' Exchange and supply association closed its two-day convention, yesterday afternoon, with a resolution that the use of Canadian materials in the construction of buildings in Canada should be encouraged.

Mr. J. J. Hughes, King's P. L. I., pointed out that while the Province has a large number of Canadian materials, it is not using them to the extent that it should. He said that the use of Canadian materials would be a "great benefit to the Canadian economy."

WHEAT RALLY QUITE SHARP

Sale of 3,000,000 Bushels at Winnipeg Reported.

Stocks Depend Upon Settlement of German Controversy

(Supplied by Tomenson, Foreward & Co., Merchants Bank Building.)
Chicago, Feb. 24.—It was not until 10:30 a.m. that the wheat market began to move. At first it was a rally, but later the break of 5-16, from the high point of yesterday. It was regarded by the bulls as putting the market in a good condition. Some thought it a good chance to secure profits, while the heavy selling was and for took to a further upward when they expected to get out from the market. General sentiment is largely bearish, and the impression prevails that arrivals for the near future will be sufficient to meet the demand. Reports from Winnipeg said the recent break there Tuesday was due to the wheat being offered down steadily by steady. The New York market, Winnipeg said, 3,000,000 bushels had been sold there for two days for export. Large arrivals were expected there for some days. Most of the export sales were for delivery. Heavy losses by country exporters were reported. They have checked their operations the last few days and a reduced movement is expected for the near future. Not before, industries here and at Buffalo and Chicago, Indianapolis, Louisville, Cincinnati, and other cities, have bought cash corn in the south. They have been very active. Distillers have narrowed as they were unusually over the No. 5, 6 and 7, under May delivery.
